Dear Friends,

In 2015, the Department of Orthodontics, Hebrew University-Hadassah School of Dental Medicine in Jerusalem, celebrates its 50th anniversary. To mark this milestone, the Department is holding a Scientific Congress jointly with the Israel Orthodontic Society to honor its achievements in teaching, research and clinical excellence, each of which has contributed to its international reputation.

The Congress will take place 5-6 November 2015, with prominent lecturers from Israel and abroad.

We invite you to come and celebrate 50 years of success!

Sincerely,

Prof. Shroff

The 50th Anniversary of the Department of Orthodontics Hebrew University - Hadassah School of Dental Medicine Jerusalem Joint Meeting With The Israel Orthodontic Society

3-5 November 2015       David Citadel Hotel, Jerusalem

Scientific program

Tuesday | November 5 | 2015

08:00 - 08:45 Registration
09:00 - 09:15 Greetings

Prof. Shroff

09:15 - 10:20 Can we enhance speed of orthodontic treatment?
Prof. Ravindra Nanda

10:10 - 10:30 Debate on : Consensus Informed orthodontics (PAOO): How now?
Prof. Bhavna Schroff

10:30 - 10:40 Coffee break
10:40 - 11:00 Debate on: Anterior / posterior problems: Mesiobuccal root and Apical Huik
Dr. Giri Barak and Prof. Dr. Shroff Einy

11:00 - 11:15 Biomaterials and TADs for optimal appliance design.
Dr. Bhavna Schroff

11:15 - 12:30 Discussion on Anterior/posterior versus decortication Dr. Ravindra Nanda and Dr. Eyal Huik
12:30 - 13:00 Debate on: Our treatment success without its removal?
Prof. Alex Paris

13:00 - 13:40 Lunch – visit the exhibition
13:40 - 15:15 Surgical-orthodontic: how to optimise treatment outcomes?
Prof. Bhavna Schroff

15:15 - 15:30 Case presentation- postgraduate student
15:30 - 15:50 Coffee break – visit the exhibition
15:50 - 16:10 Case presentation – visit the exhibition
16:10 - 16:55 Multidisciplinary treatment – management of complex problems
Prof. Ravindra Nanda

16:55 - 17:00 Discussion

Friday | November 6 | 2015

08:00 - 08:45 Managing maxillary versus mandible space extractions problems with intermaxillary traction
Prof. Ravindra Nanda

09:15 - 10:30 Debate on: Orthodontic versus surgical augmentation – or both?
Prof. Nita Bickschad and Prof. Stella Chaushu

10:15 - 10:30 Case presentation- postgraduate student
10:35 - 11:00 Round robin presentation – is it still a clinical challenge?
Prof. Bhavna Schroff

11:00 - 12:30 Group discussion: Superimposition feedback in the preclinical – extract early or late?
Prof. Adrian Becker and Prof. Yehoshua Shapiro

12:20 - 12:30 Discussion
12:30 - 14:30 The Israeli Orthodontic Society-assembly

Invited Speakers:

Prof. Ravindra Nanda
Dr. Nanda is Professor and Head of the Department of Craniofacial Sciences and Department of Orthodontics, University of Connecticut. He has been associated with the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, he has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff obtained her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff delivers master’s courses as lecturer-demonstrator, and has delivered more than 120 master class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Parlar graduated from the School of Dentistry, University of Ankara in 1982, and became University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He has received 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Shroff is professor at the COSA, and the past president of the Angle Society.

Dr. Shroff is the Secretary of the EHASO. Dr. Shroff is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff is currently the Postgraduate Program Director in Orthodontics at the VCU School of Dentistry. She has also authored a Master in Public Administration at VCU School of Dentistry. She is a past president of the NIDR, the AAOF, and the AD Williams Foundation.

Dr. Shroff continues his intensive lecturing and becomes University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Parlar has graduate work in both orthodontics and periodontology and became University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Shroff obtained her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff continues her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff is currently the Postgraduate Program Director in Orthodontics at the VCU School of Dentistry. She is a past president of the COSA, and the past president of the Angle Society.

Dr. Shroff continues his intensive lecturing and becomes University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Parlar has graduate work in both orthodontics and periodontology and became University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Shroff obtained her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff continues her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff is currently the Postgraduate Program Director in Orthodontics at the VCU School of Dentistry. She is a past president of the COSA, and the past president of the Angle Society.

Dr. Shroff continues his intensive lecturing and becomes University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Parlar has graduate work in both orthodontics and periodontology and became University Professor in Periodontology in 1995. He is the recipient of 7 scientific awards, has more than 120 scientific articles and has presented more than 150 lectures and congresses, delivered master’s class courses. He also practices in his clinic in Bloomington.

Dr. Shroff obtained her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Shroff has published extensively in the field of orthodontics, and has more than 200 scientific and clinical articles in major journals.

Dr. Shroff continues her DDS at Université Laval, Quebec, Canada. She has a Masters in Dental Sciences at the University of Connecticut. She is a past member of the AAOS, has been awarded the M.S. degree in Orthodontics from the University of Nymegen. Since 1972, she has been associated with the University of Connecticut.